Following the successful performances of The Magic Flute and The Phantom of the Opera, Hong Kong Opera Company (HKO) present this year’s summer school, titled "Let’s Sing Together!". The summer school aims to engage students aged 12 to 17 in opera and musical theatre, providing them with an opportunity to develop their musical talent and appreciation of the arts.

The summer school will be held at the Hong Kong Cultural Centre and will feature masterclasses with expert teachers from the UK and China. Participants will have the chance to work with HKO’s revered maestros and develop their singing and acting skills.

The program includes a variety of activities such as vocal training, acting exercises, and workshops on the history and development of opera. Participants will also have the opportunity to perform in a final concert, showcasing their progress and talent. The summer school aims to inspire young people to pursue careers in the arts and foster a love for opera and musical theatre.

For more information or to register, please visit the HKO’s website or contact the summer school coordinator.
